Case No. 4:17-CV-1522 PLC

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on review of the record. Defendants filed a motion to continue trial stating that their lead counsel “has a medical condition that prevents her from being able to participate meaningfully in a lengthy trial scheduled to begin on March 11, 2019.” [ECF No. 119] Plaintiff did not oppose the motion and, on February 25, 2019, the Court held a status conference to discuss a new trial date. [ECF Nos. 124, 126]

At the status conference, attorneys for both parties represented that they are available to try this case in late June 2019. Counsel also stated that they anticipate requiring more than one week to try the case.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this case is set for an eight- to ten-day jury trial on Monday, June 24, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the order setting the final pre-trial conference for March 7, 2017 [ECF No. 115] is VACATED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a Final Pretrial Conference with counsel is re-scheduled to Friday, June 14, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. During that conference, the Court will address all pretrial matters, including, but not limited to, any motions in limine and proposed jury instructions. Counsel should anticipate being trained on the courtroom's electronic equipment immediately following this conference.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, no later than May 28, 2019, the parties shall meet and jointly prepare and file with the Clerk a JOINT Stipulation of all uncontested facts, in accordance with Section II of the Court's Case Management Order [ECF No. 15].

IS FURTHER ORDERED that, no later than June 7, 2019, the parties shall submit to the Court and opposing counsel their (1) written requests for instructions and forms of verdicts and (2) all motions in limine to exclude evidence, in accordance with Section II of the Court's Case Management Order [ECF No. 15].

IT IS FINALLY ORDERED that the parties shall file any responses to motions in limine to exclude evidence, and submit a courtesy copy directly to the Court's chambers, by 12:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 13, 2019.
